Unfold the most touching page of Taiwan, and Savor it with our guidebook "Gifts for a Trip to Taiwan"

Since the Age of Discovery, Europeans had named Taiwan as Formosa, which means beautiful in Latin. Exceptionally rich in geographic resources, Taiwan owns almost all scenery you can imagine: the magnificent cliff of Taroko Gorge, the forest railway of Alishan, Jiaoxi hot springs, the coastal scenery of East Rift Valley, scenic views of Sun Moon Lake, Kenting's tropical scenes. Just to name some. People who have ever been to Taiwan undoubtedly agree that Taiwan the treasure island is full of warmness and hospitality. Spectacular scenery, specialty snacks and fine cuisine, culture and arts, night markets and festival activities, friendly Taiwan people especially, all that make the journey to Taiwan memorable.

Nowadays, a trip is no more a way to give a passing glance around, but a kind of travel-in-depth living style instead. Thus, we sincerely invite you to pay an easeful visit to Taiwan with our guidebook "Gifts for a Trip to Taiwan." In this guidebook, we collect consumer information and tourism coupons from more than 100 theme parks, travel agencies, hotels, B&B, leisure farms and resorts around the island. Moreover, there are also travel information, places of interest, and "Time for Celebration - Taiwan Tourism Events" conducted by Taiwan Tourism Bureau. Our guidebook will let you realize that it is always the best time to travel around Taiwan all year around and explore seasonal beauties of the island. You will definitely find different fun, no matter whether you come to Taiwan the first time.

As the Chairman of Taiwan Visitors Association, I sincerely recommend you to put Taiwan on the top traveling list of 2014. The natural scenery, hospitality of people, and world-renowned Taiwanese cuisine will certainly become the most touching, beautiful memories which might keep you coming back to Taiwan the next time!

◎ Taxi

The taxi fare from Taiwan Taoyuan International Airport to Taipei City is about NT$1,300. The taxi fare from Kaohsiung International Airport to Kaohsiung City is about NT$350. Convenient taxi service is available in most cities in Taiwan. Starting meter and mileage fares vary by county and city, but the difference is fairly small. In some cities, and for long-distance trips, cabbies may not use the meter, so it's a good idea to confirm the fare before embarking.

National Palace Museum

Ranked as one of the world's top-four museums, the National Palace Museum boasts a collection of more than 650,000 historic items, including calligraphy, paintings, books and documents, Qing archives, bronze vessels, jades, ceramics, and curios, all spanning a period of about 7,000 years.

Sun Moon Lake

Sun Moon Lake is located at the heart of Taiwan. The lake, Taiwan's biggest, is named after its sun-shaped and moon-shaped halves. The encircling green mountains and the passion of the local Thao indigenous people further make this a destination worth experiencing.

Alishan

Alishan presents an ever-changing beauty as one ascends from the base to the mid-elevation peak. The mountains are home to Taiwan's only forest railway. Alishan is also renowned for its spring cherry blossoms, autumn maples, sunrise views, ancient trees, cloud formations, and evening colors. The traditional ceremonies of the resident Tsou aboriginal tribe can also be enjoyed here.

Taroko Gorge

Created by a combination tectonic movement and river erosion, this magnificent gorge in Taroko National Park is one of the premier world-class attractions in Taiwan. Cycling is the best way to experience the beauty of Taroko Gorge and the other scenic areas along the way at a leisurely pace.

New Ideas for Green Living

Green living is a simple, tasteful and pure lifestyle that emphasizes happiness and safety, respectful for nature and environmental protection; it is a way of living that allows people and nature to co-exist and prosper in harmony. When facing stress in life or pressure at work, why not leave it all behind and visit a leisure farm in Taiwan for a refreshing taste of green living?

Experience with Ease

Leisure farms are a travel option that was developed from leisure farming. Tourist orchards, country restaurants, distinctive homestays, ecological guides, and countryside experience activities all utilize rural scenery, natural ecology, and environmental resources, giving people who love to travel a chance to experience farm life in Taiwan in an easy and relaxed way.

Eating the Right Way

Short distance from producer to consumer, local seasonal, organic, and “light-cooking” delicacies have been food and drink fashions in Taiwan in recent years. Taiwan’s leisure farms insist on using local, seasonal and organic fresh foods to cook with little oil, salt, sugar and seasoning. Food lovers can enjoy good cuisine without having to worry about their waistlines.

Buying without Worry

Many farm operators love to share and use self-grown seasonal ingredients to develop creative healthy farm products. Visitors are able to eat and buy farm products without worry.

Learning while Having Fun

Going into the forest to pick wild vegetables, catching fish and shrimp in a stream or paying a visit to the frogs and fireflies in the fields under a starry sky are what visitors enjoy most in leisure farms since we provide opportunities to learn about nature while having fun.

Staying Tastefully

Surrounded by nature, leisure farms often use building materials and utilize the surrounding landscape to make the farms ideal places for enjoying a simple, natural green lifestyle.

Hot Spots

National Palace Museum, Yangmingshan National Park, Taipei 101 Observatory, Beitou Hot Spring Area, Tamsui, Shilin Night Market, Ningxia Night Market, Wulai Scenic Area, Maokong Tea Farms , Northeast Coast, North Coast, Jiufen and Jinguashi, Pingxi , Yingge, Sanxia, etc.

Taipei 101 Observatory

This observatory occupies the 89th floor of the 508-meter-high Taipei 101 building. Visitors can buy tickets on the fifth floor and then ride the world's fastest elevator up for a panoramic view of Taipei City. Meanwhile, Taipei 101 marks the epicenter of the popular shopping area in Taipei's Xinyi Plan District. Shoppers can find the world's best brands at Taipei 101 Mall, Shin Kong Mitsukoshi Xinyi Place, Hankyu Department Stores, Bellavita, and the other upscale stores here. Vieshow Cinemas and Eslite Bookstores are other popular destinations here.

Maokong Tea Farms

Located in the southwest outskirts of Taipei, the mountainous Muzha area is home to several recreational tea farms and distinctive teahouses with scenic views: the perfect place to learn about northern Taiwan's tea culture and enjoy fine local tea. Take the mini bus up the mountain road to Maokong to fully enjoy the scenery.

【Nearby Attraction】

Maokong Gondola

Taipei's first cable car system, the Maokong Gondola runs between the Taipei Zoo and Maokong over a 4.03-kilometer route. The gondola has "crystal cabins" with transparent glass floors, putting the area's scenic beauty literally underfoot.

Yangmingshan National Park

Taipei's beautiful back yard, Yangmingshan embraces Mt. Qixing, Mt. Datun, and Mt. Shamao. This volcanic area is also home to a variety of thermal springs. Most of the springs are fed by sulfuric acid water, but there are also white sulphur springs at Lengshuikeng and Macao. Most of the spas here also offer dining, tea and accommodation.

Beitou Hot Spring Area

Beitou is Taiwan's best-known hot spring area. There are several spring sources here, including the Diregu (Hell Valley), Longfeng, Fenghuang, Hushanli, and Xingyi Road areas. Green sulphur, white sulphur, and iron sulphur springs can all be found here. There are also several hot spring hotels to choose from near Xinbeitou MRT Station.

Wulai Scenic Area

Wulai Scenic Area is a popular hot spring destination in northern Taiwan. The clear and odorless water is believed to have a beautifying effect. Wulai also has a rich aboriginal culture and equally diverse scenic charms, making this a good place to converse with nature.

Tamsui

Tamsui is a riverside fishing town with plenty of historic sites and local specialty foods. The town is also known for its beautiful sunsets and scenic surroundings. The Old Street area extends along a 1,500-meter stretch of road between Tamsui MRT Station and the town's small fishing harbor. A tree-shaded riverside promenade, floating stage, and tide-viewing bay further add to Tamsui's charms.

Jiufen and Jinguashi

The former mining towns of Jiufen and Jinguashi are located near the Northeast Coast. They re-entered the public spotlight after being featured in the movies "A City of Sadness" and "Hill of No Return." Today, the towns attract a steady flow of visitors with their famous specialty snacks, old-world charm, and teahouses.

Pingxi Sky Lanterns

Originally built to transport coal, the Pingxi Line railway is today a popular tourism route. The region's coal-mining past can be explored at the Taiwan Coal Mine Museum near Shifen Station and the Shidi Coal Mine by Jingtong Station. Pingxi is also famous for its sky lanterns.

Yun Hsien Holiday Resort

Wulai is located 27km east south of Taipei City, the only indigenous area in New Taipei City area. Green trees and clear streams filled this area surrounded by mountain range. The scenery at the source of famous Wulai waterfall is even more spectacular with ancient woods soaring up the skies, cloud and mist covering the forests, colorful butterflies, the chattering of cicadas and the chirping of birds, all made this place a retreat away from the turmoil of the world. However, this view is blocked away from the tourist due to the natural landscapes of steep crags and cliffs belonging to the Nanshih River. In the light of this, we start drafting plans to build a cable car so as to let this natural wild view be seen and enjoyed completely by the public from the air. As the natural view changes with season, all different and beautiful in its own unique ways, this area seems like a paradise therefore we named it “Yun Hsien Holiday Resort” meaning “a land of celestials and clouds.”

ChooArt Villa

ChooArt Villa, the green building aiming at sustainably co-existing with the nature, is located nearby Longteng Broken Bridge in Sanyi Township, Miaoli. Respecting the precursors, ChooArt Villa modestly proffers the land to the camphor tree forest. For blending into the mountain landscape, ChooArt Villa's architecture is built along the terrain with mass window views to create green views and draw in sunlight. The natural and green eaves construct a roof-top garden, which is filled with springtime irises. The tortuous air pergola becomes the best runway for all the beings in the nature, so that people can truly experience the unhurried live among the forest trees and feel the throb that comes from four seasons' changes and the blend of heaven and earth.

Private terrace in every guest room.

The architecture co-exists with the native camphor.

South Garden Hotels and Resorts

South Garden is the only resort where you can truly experience a relaxing Mediterranean vacation. The architecture at South Garden largely employs natural building materials and color palettes, which harmonizes the interior design with nature. The attractions here combine elements, such as sunshine, green fields, fresh air and water, create a warm ambience. Stroll along the peaceful green fields, you will feel your heart warming up at South Garden Hotels and Resorts.

The main theme of design is based on a modern Mediterranean style. Designer Chen who specializes in spatial construction strived to build a spacious and comfortable hotel environment. In addition to utilize Mediterranean elements, he further elevated the ceiling for allowing maximum light penetration, and thus rendered a scenic view. Combined with natural materials such as woods and stones, the architecture fuses different elements together and creates a sense of harmony between artificial elements and the nature.

TaipeiEYE

TaipeiEYE, Home for Authentic Traditional Chinese Performing Arts Where Eye-Opening Cross-Cultural Encounters Continue in Taiwan!

For Your Eyes Only, Creating Excellent Tourism in the Spiritual Cultures.

What sets the performing artists here apart from others is that when they walk away from the proscenium stage, before and after the show and during intermissions, they interact with the audience in performing and non-performing roles, even in the open make-up rooms and the photo areas. The simultaneous trilingual translations in Chinese, Japanese, Korean and English projected on both sides of the stage make the audience quite comfortable in understanding. By the way, the friendly people in charge of the service all around the hall always try their best to meet the audience's needs by way of their verbal proficiency in Chinese, Japanese and English as well. If you would like to enjoy a romantic evening with the mystical local colors of the brilliant international standard, please kindly do come to TaipeiEYE. The show is on stage~!

Yeliu Scenic Area (Yeliu Geopark)

Beautiful rock formations are the main attractions at this seaside scenic area, including the famous Queen's Head, Fairy Shoe, Earth Rock, and Elephant Rock. Visitors can also watch a dolphin and sea lion show at the nearby Yeliu Ocean World.

Yingge

The pottery industry was transplanted to Yingge around the turn of the nineteenth century by Wu An, a native of Quanzhou in Fujian Province. Today, Yingge is home to dozens of ceramics factories and shops, many of which can be browsed along the town's "Ceramics Street." Ceramic galleries, studios, and distinctive eateries further add to the cultural atmosphere here.

Sanxia

Zushi Temple marks the heart of this historic township. Visitors can climb Yuanshan (Yuan Mountain), walk the Changfu Bridge Trail, and experience the town's local specialty dishes and products. The Li Mei-shu Memorial Gallery is one of the top attractions here.

Hot Spots

Sun Moon Lake, National Museum of Natural Science, National Taiwan Museum of Fine Arts, Tunghai University, Jingming Shopping Area, Park Lane by CMP, Taichung Folklore Park, Formosan Aboriginal Culture Village, Houli Race Course, Guguan Scenic Area, Daxueshan National Forest Recreation Area, Puli, Lugang, etc.

Park Lane by CMP

Park Lane by CMP is a recent addition to Taichung's cultural and shopping scene. The department store has an exterior green wall that blends seamlessly with the 20-meter-high green wall in the building's atrium, creating a veritable three-dimensional garden. Boutique stores, restaurants and a bookstore can all be enjoyed in this new cultural landmark in Taichung. Meanwhile, Taichung has popularized teahouses in Taiwan, and the city's Chun Shui Tang nearby Park Lane by CMP led the way in transforming tea into a cultural experience. This traditionally decorated teahouse serves an array of inventive tea beverages. It is also the birthplace of pearl milk tea.

Jingming Shopping Area

Encompassing the Jingming 1st Street and Dadun shopping areas, this commercial district is home to some of Taichung's most distinctive shops, restaurants, and bars, including the al fresco eateries and theme cafés along Jingcheng Road and Daye Road.

National Museum of Natural Science

The National Museum of Natural Science has a number of interactive exhibits on themes ranging from the life sciences to the environment. The museum's animated Tyrannosaurus rex model is a particular favorite with kids. You can also learn more about Taiwan's ecology at the museum's Botanical Garden.

Tunghai University

Tunghai University's expansive campus is lush with the greenery of flowers, trees, and carpet-like lawns. The school's spiritual landmark is Luce Chapel. Designed by Chinese-American architect I.M. Pei, this beautiful church has a dramatic form suggestive of an overturned sailboat.

Formosan Aboriginal Culture Village

The Formosan Aboriginal Culture Village presents the culture of Taiwan's major indigenous peoples through their architecture, art, song and dance. Visitors can also enjoy the seasonal beauties by cable car during the park's annual cherry blossom festival.

Puli

Located a short distance from Sun Moon Lake, Puli is famous for its "good water, good climate, fine wine, and good women." Other attractions in the township include the Puli Paper Factory, Puli Winery, Longnan Lacquer Arts Museum, Muh Sheng Museum of Entomology, and New Era Stone Sculpture Park.

【Nearby Attraction】

Puli Winery

Puli Shaoxing wine is made from select Penglai rice, glutinous rice, wheat and Ailan Spring water, and matured for two to seven years. The winery has also developed a variety of shaoxing snacks that are worth a try.

Lugang

Lugang was once the second-largest city in Taiwan. Many century-old historic sites have been preserved here, among them Tianhou Temple, Longshan Temple, Wenwu Temple, Nine-Turns Lane, and the Old Street area. Folk arts and local specialty foods, such as mantis shrimp, oyster omelets, seasoned millet mush, and Taiwanese meatballs, further add to the reasons to visit Lugang.

【Nearby Attraction】

Wu Dun-hou Lantern Store

Master lantern-maker Wu Dun-hou is one of Taiwan's living national treasures. His traditional paper lanterns have earned a strong reputation for their unique colors, designs, shapes, and functionality, and are often presented as gifts to visiting foreign dignitaries.

Tourism and Travel Bureau, Taichung City Government

Welcome to Taichung City Calligraphy Greenway

The Calligraphy Greenway, extending from the Citizens' Plaza, north to the National Museum of Natural Science and south to the National Taiwan Museum of Fine Arts, is a 3.6km long green walkway. This Greenway not only attracts visitors to both museums but also becomes a charming stronghold for domestic and foreign tourists. Other than the stylish Calligraphy Greenway itself and the artistic ambiance, there are quite a few exotic restaurants, Chinmei Eslite, Citizens' Plaza, as well as creative arts and crafts stores, which are all worth visitors coming and savoring. Strollers on these passageways will encounter the unexpected, as though they were visiting museums. They will discover the arts in every corner of the Calligraphy Greenway and while savoring those artistic and cultural spaces enjoy the merriment and experience a humane life style.

Hot Spots

Alishan, Port of Kaohsiung, Love River, former British Consulate at Takao, Tianhou Temple, Xizi Bay Scenic Area, Chengching Lake, Qijin, Dream Mall, Kending, Tainan, Kimen, Penghu, etc.

Love River

Once just a shallow channel running through Kaohsiung, the Love River was dredged to create a canal for river transportation. At night the view here is especially beautiful, with colorfully illuminated bridges over the river and the lights of the surrounding skyscrapers. There are plenty of open-air cafés along the river when you can take a break and enjoy the view with an espresso.

Xizi Bay Scenic Area

Situated at the west side of Kaohsiung, Xizi Bay Scenic Area is known for its beautiful sunsets, swimming beach, and historic sites. Sun Yat-sen University and the former British Consulate at Takao (now a café and museum) further add to the cultural ambiance of this area.

Qijin

From Xizi Bay, you can take the Qijin Ferry to Qijin Island, the birthplace of Kaohsiung. The area from the old street behind Tianhou Temple to Qijin Lighthouse is a good place to experience the island's historic past and feast on the delicious local seafood.

Dream Mall

This mall sprawls over an area of five hectares and reflects Kaohsiung's maritime links with its whale-like facade. The rooftop Ferris wheel rises to a height of 102.5 meters, offering a good vantage of Kaohsiung's coastal landscape. In addition to brand-name boutiques, a food court, the Chi Mei Museum, Old is New, and other cultural attractions are located at the mall.

Historic Tainan

The modern history of Taiwan begins in Tainan: formerly the prefectural seat of the island and an early outpost for Japanese pirates, European traders, and immigrants from Fujian and Guangzhou. This was also the South Pacific base of the Dutch and the site of Cheng Cheng-kung's "King's Fort." This rich history can be explored at the Dutch-built Chikan Tower (Fort Provintia) and Anping Fort (though little of the original buildings remains), Taiwan's oldest Confucius Temple, the Sacrificial Rites Martial Temple, and "Taiwan's First Street" (Yanping Old Street). Make sure to also enjoy the city's delicious snacks.

Kending

Kending is home to Taiwan's first and largest tropical botanical garden. There is also a large forest, pastures, and a beach for all types of water and land activities. And when you're feeling hungry, plenty of delicious treats await along Kending Road.

【Nearby Attraction】

Eluanbi Lighthouse

Built in 1882, Eluanbi Lighthouse marks the southern tail of Taiwan at Eluanbi Park. The tower base has a gun emplacement, embrasures, and surrounding moat, making this one of the few fortified lighthouses in the world.

Kinmen

A Bird-watching pilgrimage site for bird lovers, a food paradise of Fujian cuisine and seafood for gourmets, a treasury of Minnan historic houses and western-style buildings for scholars, and a must-go place for lovers of Kaoliang spirit (Kaoliang sorghum liquor), Kinmen reveals diverse faces to visitors with its abundant natural resources and historic remains from war years.

Taiwan Studio City

As one of Taiwan's must-see attractions, Taiwan Studio Culture City, formerly known as the "White River Studios," is Taiwan's largest film studio. Since its construction in 1991, hundreds of TV series have been produced here, including most of the Taiwanese dramas you've seen on TV. On the studio grounds, you can catch a glimpse of movie celebrities or pose for pictures in costumes as you relish in cinematic nostalgia. Walking on stilts and performing your own hand puppet show are interesting activities you can participate. You can also enjoy the view while dining at the studio's restaurant, visit the conference hall, or tour our old-style ranch.

Hot Spots

Yilan's Jiaoxi Hot Spring Area, Taroko National Park, Farglory Ocean Park, Qixingtian, Xiuguluan River, Liyu (Carp) Lake, Chinan National Forest Recreation Area, Ruisui Pasture, Ruisui Hot Springs, Shin Kong Chao Feng Ranch, Promised Land Resort, Taitung's Zhiben Hot Springs, etc.

Yilan's Jiaoxi Hot Springs

Yilan's Jiaoxi Hot Springs are rare plain springs in Taiwan. The springs were found by Japanese during the Japanese colonization period. The sodium bicarbonate springs here are rich in iron, manganese, magnesium, calcium, and other trace elements. The clear and odorless water is believed to have a beautifying effect and applied to a variety of farm products, such as hot spring rice, hot spring flowers, hot spring vegetables, etc.

Farglory Ocean Park

Farglory Ocean Park is divided into several theme areas, including Ocean Village, Discovery Island, Dolphin Lagoon, Main Street, Harbor Square, Brighton by the Sea, and Crystal Castle. The dolphin and sea lion shows, performed every morning and afternoon, are particular favorites.

Taitung's Zhiben Hot Springs

Taitung's Zhiben Hot Springs are known as "the first beautiful scenery in the eastern Taiwan." The alkaline sodium bicarbonate springs with clear, odorless, tasteless mineral rich water are known as "beauty baths." The water is said to have a beautifying effect and a healing effect on chronic diseases. Nearby attractions including Small Yeliu and Zhiben Forest Recreation Area are also good places to enjoy the fun of forest bathing.

Yilan County Government

As the opening of Xueshan Tunnel in 2006, it has become more convenient and easy to visit Yilan through the tunnel. The moment you exit the dim light of the tunnel, your eyes adapt to the clear light, which reveals to you the picturesque mountains, the rice paddies, and rivers. All the scenes suddenly unfold to you. You don't need any road signs to tell you that you've arrived in Yilan.

In Yilan, people own rich natural resources from Lan-Yang Plain, clean, pure water streams from majestic mountains, vast green fields, and fresh air not only to nurture them, but also to form their open minds, kindness and hospitality. Come with your curiosity to explore Yilan's rich treasures. Enjoy Yilan's amazing scenery, hot springs, fun activities, passionate people, and, of course, specialties and foods with us. Yilan is surely a must-go journey while you visit Taiwan!

National Center for Traditional Arts

Found in Wujie Township, Yilan County, the National Center for Traditional Arts (NCTA) has become a landmark on the Langyang Plain and a distinctive window to Taiwanese culture. Located on the bank of Dongshang River near where it meets the ocean, the Center is comprised of 24 hectares which are designed to promote historical arts, theater, music, dances and aerobatics. The whole complex, with its traditional red-brick walls and black tiles, will whisk you away to an earlier time.

The NCTA is a world-class attraction showcasing the culture and history of Taiwan. With exciting shows, hands on activities and interactive exhibits, there will always be something to delight your senses and satisfy your cultural curiosity. Every season brings a new theme, so multiple visits are encouraged! Do not miss this opportunity to experience the authentic flavor of Taiwan's folk arts!

Make Your Own Souvenir

Listen to the dialogue between the ocean and mountain at the seaside paradise....

Once a filming shooting scene of the TV drama 《Juliet of the East》, Sea-Hi B&B's location is only 300 meters from the ocean. The B&B is a European-style building with a dark, slanted roof paired with elegant Japanese exterior tile. It sits atop green grass by the pebble beach, and has a white coffee lounge on the patio. The lush green grass, shadowy banana and coconut trees, and brightly colored flowers create a relaxed, romantic atmosphere for a southern European, Aegean Sea, or Maldives-like vacation.

Sea-Hi B&B is located within the Taiwan National East Coast Scenic Area, with the Pacific Ocean to the east, and the coastal mountain ridge to the west. The B&B and its luxurious gardens of over 10,000 square feet are surrounded by this unique seaside landscape, which forms a naturally beautiful ocean paradise. Whenever you want to watch the boats and birds, enjoy good coffee and tasty meals, or simply watch the sea absentmindedly, this seaside sanctuary will take your worries away and bring you the most carefree vacation.

Yi-He Golden Stronghold

Yi-He Golden Stronghold

Yi-He Golden Stronghold is located in the western Coastal Range of East Rift Valley. The year-round mountain breeze near Mizhan Ancient Trail and Central Valley Plain creates a special view for the B&B. Mizhan Pasture owns many advantages for visitors to take a vacation here; one of the most popular one is that people will feel no stress and relaxing completely here. The B&B is like a self-sufficiency retreat away from the turmoil of the world. With the surrounding stunning scenery, the B&B seems too beautiful to be true. Come to experience the dream vacation with us in Yi-He Golden Stronghold.
